YOUR ANSWER TO THESE QUESTIONS WILL TAKE YOU FROM WHERE YOU ARE TO WHERE YOU TRULY WANT TO BE IN LIFE

In 2014, I was in a fix. I was clueless, I was stuck, I was frustrated and wanted a way out like my life depended on it. Of course my life depended on it truly.

I cared for myself, for my sanity and my growth so much that I sought solution and steps to move from where I was to where I truly desired to be.

To achieve this result and more, I provided honest answers to these questions.

i am sharing these questions with you, with the hope that you provide your own honest answers for yourself so as to get the transformation you desire.

WHO AM I?

To answer this question, you must look inward, pay attention to the every tiny little bit you can imagine. Do not just hang on the amazing things about you, identify the not so pleasant things about you too. This is not who people have said you are, it is who you have learnt that you are. You alone spend 24 hours with yourself everyday.

Identify your core personal values, your strength and your weakness.

WHERE AM I PRESENTLY IN LIFE?

Identify and accept your present reality so as to be able to identify the distance between where you are and where you truly want to be. You must be very honest with yourself in doing this. Do not fine tune anything and do not undermine yourself.

Make a good list of what your life looks like presently and score yourself. Where you are at the lowest, do not be ashamed to accept it, knowing that awareness empowers you to make the changes you want.

WHAT DO I REALLY WANT IN LIFE?

To answer this, be as plain as plain can be. Be specific. Avoid vague statements like, "I want a very successful career, I want to be wealthy, etc". Define what you want in clear and compelling terms.. Go crazy and wild. Do not worry if it seems impossible, list them all, but be specific and compelling.

WHO DO I NEED TO BECOME TO ACHIEVE THIS?

Define who you need to become to be able to achieve this feat. This will help you identify the changes you MUST make in your life. Tasking but necessary changes that will help you on your journey.

WHY IS THIS NEW REALITY IMPORTANT TO ME?

At this stage you define why you truly want to make these changes, why it is important you achieve the result you want? Why do you want what you want. The answer to this fuels you on your journey to getting what you want.

Like I said earlier, my answers to these questions transformed me in ways I did not think possible.

Be as honest as possible in answering these questions, as I look forward to your own transformation, growth and success.
